SENATOR BECKHAM GIVES NICE PLACE TO LOCAL MAN

Dr. W. N. Craig Appointed Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Under New Narcotic Law.

Dr. W. N. Craig, of Stanford, Monday received notice of his appointment as a Deputy Internal Revenue Collector under the narcotic law recently enacted by Congress. This appointment is quite an honor for Dr. Craig, who is the first physician to hold office under the new law named for the state of Kentucky. Senator Ollie M. James named a man for the western half of the state, and Dr. Craig received the eastern half. Dr. Craig is a member of the J. C. W. Beckham. Only specially equipped men were eligible for these appointments, one of the requirements being that they must be experienced in the work. One of the duties of the office have to do with inspection of drug stores and enforcing regulations concerning the sale of morphine, cocaine and other narcotics. Dr. Craig will report to the office in Louisville April 1st. The position pays a salary of $1,600 a year with Dr. Craig is splendidly equipped in every way for the position he assumes. He was engaged in the drug business here for a number of years, and is a thoroughly successful man and a life long democrat. His many friends are warmly congratulating him upon his appointment by Senator Beckham.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

Upward of 150 lives were lost in the sinking by German submarines of the African liner Falaba and the British steamer Agula. The Falaba was torpedoed in St. George's Channel, and carried a crew of ninety and about fifty passengers, and of this total only 140 were saved, and the Agula was sunk off the coast of Ireland by German submarine U-28. Twenty-three of the crew and three passengers were lost. The Dutch steamer "Holland" was blown up off Flamborough Head by a mine, the crew escaping. Replying to a deputation proceeding with increased violence, the Russians being in possession of western passes and advancing into Hungary.

Preparations have been made for consideration by the Supreme Court, shortly after the Easter recess, of litigation involving the constitutionality

In 1933, The "drys" contend that the Webb-Kenyon law has withdrawn from interstate territory consigned to local or intrastate territory, the shipments by the "wets" to the local market, a legal situation. The "wets" declare the law was merely aimed at "bootlegging" and does not withdraw from the commerce and clause protection from interstate shipment designed for personal use. They are as much concerned over the proper construction of the law as over the question of validity. Liquor dealers went into the courts to compel carriers to into dry territory. In Kentucky the courts adopted the "wet" construction, and an express company foreseeing an alleged necessity of employing a big force of inspectors and detectives to ferret out the purpose of each shipment, appealed to the Supreme Court. It is this case which will be argued after Easter. Somewhat similar cases involving West Virginia and North Carolina liquor laws are also before the court.

Billy Sunday's campaign in Philadelphia has ended after eleven weeks of very strenuous preaching, with total of 43,000 conversions claimed by the evangelist's friends. It is estimated that it cost the people of that city in contributions, car fare, extra meals and hymnals about $500,000 or almost $7 per convert. That is cheap enough. It is far less than is paid ordinarily for the saving of souls. The question of whether the Sunday converts "stick" depends of course on whether or not their determination is to remain Christians after the emotional effect of the evangelist's exceedingly emotional preaching wears off. Philadelphia itself is not satisfied that this sort of campaigning is best in the long run, and in a number of other cities there is a difference of opinion as to whether it should be encouraged. Whatever may be the permanent results of the revival, it was in some respects the most remarkable ever held in this country, largely because of the unusual publicity given it. The total attendance at the tabernacle is said to have been 1,700,000, and the Philadelphia newspapers devoted columns every day, and some days as much as two pages to descriptions of the meetings and extracts from the sermons. If its results are not permanently good an enormous amount of labor and money will have been wasted.

A Barbourville dispatch says that Caleb Powers will go on the lecture platform this summer. He has closed a contract for a two-months' lecture tour, but you can bet your bottom dollar that the tour does not include any Kentucky towns, where Caleb and his record are best known. It is generally admitted that the platform is the place for Powers, but there are some who are unkind enough to suggest that it is not the lecture platform.

Hats off to James Maret and the rest of the good roads boosters of Rockcastle. The citizens voted 2,229 to 519 for the bond issue at the election held Saturday and that means a new era for our sister county. When Brers, Maret and Albright put their shoulders to the wheel you can count on something happening. If Laurel votes for bonds the Boone way is a certainty, and it is certain that she will do so. The election will be held on the 13th.

A bill has been introduced in the Wisconsin Legislature to make it a felony to tip a waiter or porter. Another effort to curtail the rights of the people, some of whom want to aid in their effort to make an honest living the poor Pullman porter and the fellow in the dining room, clad in dress suit and "biled" shirt, who would starve you to death if you did not flip him two bits or more every time he turns around.

Sarah Bernhardt, the divine Sarah, will make another tour of America, notwithstanding the fact that she now carries a cork leg and is 79-odd years of old age. She has gotten so used to gulling the American people that she thinks she can keep it up it matters not what either her physical condition or the financial status of the country is.

That voter up in Indiana who registered as a dog and was voted by a negro evidently didn't place much value upon the exalted privilege of franchise. But then it happened in Hoosierdom.

A Berlin chemist has discovered that a palatable and nutritious bread can be made of wheat straw. Just think of it—bread in straw, sermons in stones, books in books and good in everything. Great old world, ain't it?

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is not noticed by the patient until it is too late. We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Indiana people are not, as a general thing, proud of Vice President Marshall. Many think that the country would be in an "ell of a fix" should President Wilson die and leave him to pilot the ship of the State. The papers, or to be more exact, the majority of them, never let an opportunity pass to "knock on" their ex-Governor and present Vice President, and the fact that he is representing President Wilson at the Panama Exposition seems to stick them in a remarkably tender spot. Mr. Marshall seems to be regarded as an accident and a bad one at that. The old quotation "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country" is doubtless applicable in his case, for he has come to the front too rapidly in the past half a dozen years to be a mediocre statesman, but on the contrary must be a man among men and a good one at that.

There are six candidates for governor of Kentucky on the democratic side of the house. With the exception of two, each states his position on the liquor question, which is going to be the big question in Kentucky politics until the people have had a vote on the state-wide prohibition proposition. McChesney says he is for state-wide; Newman says he's for the liquor question, which is going to be the big question in Kentucky politics until the people have had a vote on the state-wide prohibition proposition. McChesney says he is for state-wide; Newman says he's for the liquor question, which is going to be the big question in Kentucky politics until the people have had a vote on the state-wide prohibition proposition.

The North Carolina Senate and House have agreed on a measure prohibiting the delivery to any citizen of more than a half gallon of whiskey or ten gallons of beer in a single month, and the Mississippi Supreme Court has decided after much consideration that "whisky is not good for man." And thus the courts and the Legislature go on and on with their work of attempting to give booze a black eye. In the mean time the bootlegger is growing rich in his nefarious work. What the good people need is more Rowan Saufleys to go after the illegal seller. It isn't the law that is so badly wanted, but officers who will do their duty like Mr. Saufley does.

Rhapsody by a Country Editor

How dear to our hearts is the steady subscriber,
Who pays in advance at the birth of each year;
Who lays down his money and does it quite gladly,
And casts round the office a halo of cheer.
He never says: "Stop it; I cannot afford it;
I'm getting more papers now than I can read."
But always says "Send it; our people all like it—
In fact, we all think it a help and a need."
How welcome his check when it reaches our sanctum.
How it makes our pulse throb;
How it makes our heart dance.
We outwardly thank him; we inwardly bless him.
The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

SOME DON'TS For Stomach and Liver Sufferers

Don't take medicine for your Stomach ailments morning, noon and night, as usually such medicines only give temporary relief and simply digest the food that happens to be in the Stomach.

Don't permit a surgical operation. There is always serious danger in operations and in many cases of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments the knife can be avoided if the right remedy is taken in time.

Don't go around with a foul smelling breath caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver, to the discomfort of those you come in contact with.

If you are a Stomach sufferer, don't think you can not be helped; probably worse cases than yours have been permanently restored by Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.

Most Stomach ailments are mainly caused by a catarrhal condition. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy not only removes the catarrhal mucus, but allays the chronic inflammation and assists in rendering the entire alimentary and intestinal tract antiseptic, and this is the secret of its marvelous success.

Don't suffer constant pain and agony and allow your stomach ailments to physically undermine your health. A Preacher's Life.

A preacher has a hard time. If his hair is gray, he is old. If he is a young man, he hasn't had experience. If he has ten children, he has too many. If he has none, he should have, and is not setting a good example. If his wife sings in the choir, she is presuming. If she doesn't, she isn't interested in her husband's work. If a preacher reads from notes, he's a bore. If he speaks extemporaneously, he isn't deep enough. If he stays at home in his study, he doesn't mix with the people. If he's seen around on the streets, he ought to be at home getting up a good sermon. If he calls on a very poor family, he is playing to the grandstand. If he calls at the home of the rich, he is an aristocrat. Whatever he does someone could have told him how to do it better. He has a fine time living off donations which never come in, and promises that never mature. Next to being a country editor, it is an awful life.—Exchange.

A freight engine which was switching in the yards is said to have backed into the car upon which Mr. Chappell was working, causing him to be thrown off and injured.

The first installment of a sparkling serial moving picture, "Runaway June" was shown at the opera house Monday night. The picture is the work of Manager Hays Foster seems to have picked up a first class picture in this serial, with plenty of action and interest and the next installment next Monday night will undoubtedly be looked for with keen anticipation.

A delightful feature of the protracted meeting at the Baptist church which closed Sunday night, was the music. The best singers in town composed the choir and aided alternately by Messdames Alfred Eads and Mrs. R. M. Newland at the organ and the charming violin soloist, Mrs. David S. Bromley, the music was both soul-stirring and entrancing. Of all her offerings the rendition of "Perfect Day" seemed to appeal most to her hearers and had her audience been anywhere save within the wall of the sacred church the applause that followed the beautiful number would have been prolonged and deafening. Dr. Eads, after listening to "Perfect Day" Sunday night, compared the music to that he hoped to hear when he has crossed over the line into the land that is fairer than day.

Who Can Doubt Sworn Testimony of Honest Citizens?

Some time ago I began the use of your Swamp-Root with the most remarkable results. For years I was almost a wreck and was a great sufferer. I was so bad at times I would faint away and had sinking spells. Finally a new doctor was called in and he said that I had kidney trouble and gave me medicine, of which I took several bottles. I obtained some relief from this but I was getting weaker all the time; I could not sleep and suffered so much pain that my husband and children had to lift me in and out of bed. After this time two friends sent me word to try Swamp-Root, which I did, and I am glad to state that the first dose gave me great relief. After taking the third dose I was helped into bed and slept half of the night.

I took several bottles of Swamp-Root and I feel that I owe my life to this wonderful remedy. The two family doctors said that I could not live three months. I would have to be helped in and out of the bed ten to twenty times every night. After taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root for two days I was entirely free from getting up and could sleep soundly.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Drs. A. M. and I. STEINBERG

REGISTERED EYESIGHT SPECIALISTS OF NASHVILLE, TENN.

—Will Be In—

Stanford, Ky., March 30th until Saturday, April 3rd

With Dr. G. G. Perry, over the State Bank & Trust Co., where they will receive patients.

PROPER GLASSES

Errors of refraction of the eye are daily assuming more importance, and are engaging more than ever the attention of the Eyesight Specialist; even the public is becoming interested after discovering how much science is able to improve the visual power, and aid the defective eye to enjoy the beauties of nature in the same degree as the perfect ones.

It is a fact, now generally known and conceded by all Opticians and educated Physicians, that certain so-called "Eye Diseases" of years gone by, as well as many cases of chronic headache, neuralgia and nervous prostration, are due to abnormal curvature of the eye-ball, or to an irregularity of the refracting media.

The more thoroughly one understands the eye and the nature of the refracting errors it is subject to, the more evident it becomes how essential it is that they should be carefully studied and scientifically treated with the proper glasses.

As we have devoted years to this study, and we are graduates in Optics of two of the best Ophthalmic Colleges in the country, and make a specialty of correcting all the various defects of sight, it will certainly be of much benefit to all those who are suffering from one or more of the symptoms mentioned in this pamphlet, to accept the cordial invitation to visit us and have their eyes examined.

Why Ladies Favor the Horse-Drawn Carriage

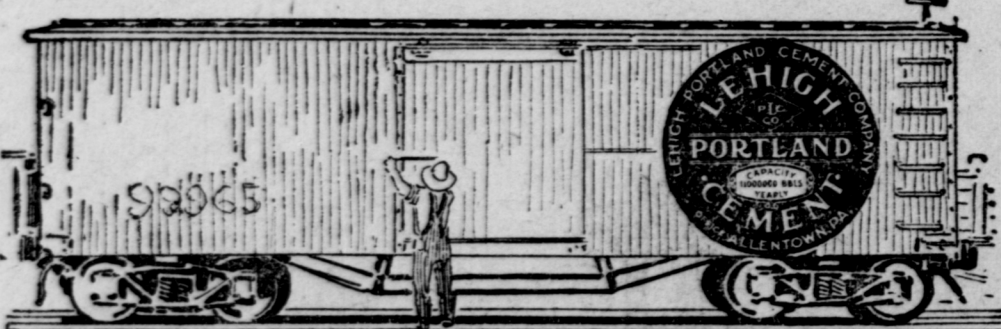

It is absolutely impossible for a lady to look dignified, graceful or beautiful in a modern automobile, unless the car happens to be a closed one—then the enclosure which protects the lady's dignity and beauty, at the same time hides those qualities from public admiration.

Undoubtedly one of the reasons why the finer grades of horse-drawn carriages are coming into use again in all the larger cities is because they give the women a chance to show their finery, their new hats and dresses; for as our lady friends have regretfully realized, the automobile affords them no such opportunities.

The buggy is one of Dan Cupid's best assistants, and every country bred young man is well aware of the fact.

R. C. Arnold bought Monday of Ed Bailey a half dozen shoats that averaged about 80 pounds at six and a quarter cents a pound.

E. B. Hatfield, who sold his farm near Waynesburg some two months ago, has bought of James Meredith his farm of 34 acres, near Ottenheim, for $1,100, and will move to it next week.

M. L. Myers sold for the firm of Shanks & Myers, to H. O. Hart, of Pulaski county, an unbroken fancy two-year-old filly by Kentucky Gentleman for $175. She is a sorrel with flax mane and tail and registered under the name of "Annette Gray."

At the sale of Mrs. J. L. Jones, near Hayden's Station last week, stock and farming implements sold well. Dan Traylor bought a mare for $53; Will Logan gave $28 for a cow; a heifer sold for $27; and a bunch of 60-pound shoats sold at $3.50 a head.

Large sales of young, unbroken horses to the United States War Department reported, adding to the activity of Kansas City stockmen, who are said to have supplied agents of belligerent countries since September 1 with 60,000 horses and mules, values at $12,000,000, and endeavoring to supply the French government with an additional 20,000 head, a Belgian contract for 20,000 animals is pending it is asserted.

If the exportation of wheat and flour from the United States continues at the rate prevailing during the last eight months the surplus in this country will be wiped out before June 1. This fact is presented in figures made public by the Department of Agriculture at Washington early this week. In this week's report a surplus of 76,000,000 bushels into the new year beginning July 1, as was done last year, the United States will find itself without any surplus whatever more than a month before the new year begins.

On March 1 this year the stock of wheat in the United States was 21,000,000 bushels less than last year. This shortage embraces an actual diminution of 14,000,000 bushels in supply, an additional 5,000,000 bushels needed for seeding and 2,000,000 bushels which it is calculated, is required to meet the demands of the normal increase in population.

On March 1 there was, in other words, a stock of 91,000,000 bushels to care for exportation during four months and surplus to be carried into the next year.

During the last eight months 245,433,000 bushels of wheat and flour have been exported. During the entire year from July, 1913 to July, 1914, the exports were 145,591,632 bushels.

The exports in December, 1914, exceeded 37,000,000 bushels, in February 1915, 35,500,000 bushels and during no month since July 1914, has the output fallen below 25,000,000 bushels.

The average exports during the first nine weeks this year were nearly 8,000,000 bushels a week. Twelve weeks of such traffic, beginning March 1, will more than wipe out the stock of wheat, as estimated by the Department of Agriculture.

The seriousness of the situation may be partly mitigated, in the opinion of the department, by the fact that wheat acreage has been greatly increased in the South, and that crop it is expected, will be harvested and placed on the market prior to July 1. The department, nevertheless, permits itself the conservative statement that "it does not appear that exportations at the same rate as during January and February can continue during the entire period (until July) without encroaching upon normal domestic requirements."

It was only a short time ago that the Secretary of Agriculture, moved to make a statement by predictions made in Congress, declared that the stock of wheat in the United States was quite ample to permit the continued exportation of wheat in large volume without endangering domestic supplies.

Bar Barlow got a haircut one day this week and now complains that his derby is too small.

The Tin Peddler was in our midst this week and sold Miss Flutie Belcher an engagement ring.

Sim Pickett has gone through the winter without an overcoat, but he has some awful deep pockets.

Poke Easley began digging a cistern at his home on Musket Ridge yesterday. He will dig as long as the dirt is loose.

Wash Hooks presented the editor of the Tidings with a large turnip last Saturday. The editor had both Wash and the turnip for dinner.

The Calf Ribs M. E. church elected stewards for the ensuing year at a meeting Monday night. In the selection of men there is a majority in favor of the Democrats.

Columbus Allison upon returning from preaching at Dog Hill last Sunday complained of his feet having hurt all during the sermon. He thought at first it was his conscience.

During the hard times, caused by the war, together with the outgoing Republican postmaster at Tickville, the moonshine still at Musket Ridge, is compelled to run in the daytime.

Yam Sims has gone to chewing wax again. It is strange how some of our men have a tendency toward recklessness. If he keeps on this downward course he will soon be wanting women to vote.

Jefferson Potlocks, who has not touched a drop since the first of the year, when he became a total abstainer, was in Tickville the other day and passed a saloon three times before going in.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band was scheduled to play at a party near Bounding Willows Saturday night and was present, but failed to render any music because they could not think of anything to play.

The house on Musket Ridge occupied by Isaac Hellwegner, was destroyed by fire late Wednesday night. The house was more than covered by insurance. It is not known where or how the fire started as nobody inquired.

DON VARRICK will make the season of 1915 at my stable, 1-4 mile from Crab Orchard, on the Singleton place at ten ($10) dollars to insure a living colt. Description and Pedigree—Don Varrick is a beautiful chestnut, 16 1-2 hands, with snip and white hind feet; weighs 1400 pounds and as compactly built as a pony, with plenty of bone and finish. He is a superb breeder as his colts will show for themselves. Prestolight, one of his colts went a mile last year at Lexington in 2:11 1-2 and another in Ohio in 2:10. No other horse ever stood at so low a price with two colts in the ten list. Don Varrick is by Onward Silver 2:05 1-4; 1st dam by Wilkes Boy 2:24; 2nd dam by Bogg's Grey Eagle. Don Varrick has plenty of speed, having shown quarters in 34 1-2 seconds and went half mile at Danville on 1-2 mile track in 1:10. He has a splendid disposition which he imparts to his colts. All his colts are prompt drivers, full of vim. They need no whip. See him before breeding elsewhere. He will take your eye and you will make no mistake in breeding to him.

A FINE MULE JACK.—I will also stand the Bun Gaines jack at the same place at $10 a season. Will stand a fine registered Shorthorn Bull at $2 to insure. Money due in all cases when animal is bred elsewhere or parted with.
